Old business

Today is the last day of Summer Reading Program. It has not been a successful program. We could try moving the dates of the program when not so many were on vacation or perhaps a program for adults.

Library Assistants report

2 boxes of books have been donated to the library. We went through them and chose to keep books that were not duplicates.

We are running out of room for children's books. We need to go through them and chose the books to keep and those that will go into our book sale.

Email from lady wanting to use wifi at the library. Beth let her know the hours of the library.

Invoices signed for books purchased by Sharon and Paula.

Supplies needed- tape
