Minutes of last meeting corrected and approved. Date of next meeting corrected from March 2nd to March 1st.

Old Business:

Notices have gone out for overdue books.

The School Librarian has been contacted and she is willing to meet with us to explore options for coordinating together. Eileen will contact her and set up a date to meet.

Library Assistant Report:

Beth will update our Facebook Page regarding the Winter Break Party.

She has set up two new book displays, one for Classics and one for books that have been made into movies.

We received our order of pencils with Concord Library written on them.

Update on Books and donations:

We have received three new requested books by Cindy Woodsmall: The Hope of Refuge, The Bridge of Peace and The Harvest of Grace.

We received a request for Drama by Raina Telgemeier.

Review February's Children's Program:

The Program included Literary Bingo games, book trivia, a contest to guess how many books were in the Library, craft, prizes and food. Everyone had a great time. We all agreed it was a success.

New Business:

We agreed to order the book Drama by Raina Telgemeier.

We discussed buying a printer/copier/scanner for the Library. The copier that was donated to us jams up frequently and a lot of paper is being wasted. That was tabled for now.

Beth will check with the State Department of Libraries to see if we can still order posters, bookmarks and pedometers through them for our upcoming summer program. If so, she will place an order.

Paula will contact Becky MacDonald to see if we might coordinate with Loch Lomond to get seniors to the Library for regular outings or perhaps we can find out their interests and set up a traveling library for them. We could have a social at the Library which could include games and food as well as promoting reading.

Eileen will contact the daycares in town to do the same.

Activities for March and April:

We decided to concentrate on April and plan a day centered around a spring theme to include planting sunflower seeds and a sunflower craft. The tentative date will be April 21st.

Our next meeting will be held April 5th at 4:00 PM.

Meeting adjourned at 5:30 PM
