VT TOP TO BOTTOM GREEN UP

From Canada
to Massachusetts

Green Up Vermont is organizing the longest litter pick up team ever.

- Saturday, May 4th - 10 am start
- 223 miles from North Troy to Stamford
- Volunteers start at every mile mark
- Route complete in about one hour
- Event after party in Killington

The publicity will be grand,
the camaraderie fantastic, and the legacy you'll leave, envious.

You and your business will definitely want to be a part of it!

HERE'S HOW: $100 donation per Volunteer Mile

- Commit to Green Up 1 mile of route on May 4 at 10 am.
Volunteer can choose their mile of the predetermined route based on availability.
- Commemorative mile marker sign and participation bib with mile number, name and business sponsor logo.
- Volunteer receives Green Up t-shirt and waterbottle.
- Volunteer and donor names are listed as part of our Guinness World Record.

WHY? Fame, bragging rights and a clean environment.
