

MINUTES OF THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES MEETING
CONCORD PUBLIC LIBRARY
JULY 3, 2025

ATTENDING: Eileen Wilson, Mary Gochie, Elaine Stasny

Meeting called to order by Eileen at 4:10pm. Mary made the motion to approve the agenda, seconded by Elaine. Elaine made the motion to approve June minutes, Mary seconded.

There was no public input.

Library Assistant's Report:

The surge protector has arrived and Beth will pick it up. The town treasurer paid the amount $391.28 on our credit card. An amount will be credited for Kindle (rather than print) books accidentally ordered. The illustrated Harry Potter book has been popular.

6 bags of popcorn went out with books during June.

A local young person, Tasha Cobb, has asked to volunteer & spent some time with Beth. Eileen will discuss having her in the building with Linda.

Beth will be out some time in August and during October.

Old Business

5 new books were reviewed.

Reminder, once more, for trustees to complete the Ethics Training. Our last for the fiscal year purchases included book covers, the new sign, chalk board and pens, and stamps. Also one of the 2 book bags for past trustee members. (the other will be included in this current fiscal year).

August summer program Sweets & Stories could include rice crispy treats which could be homemade or purchased. Both Mary and Eileen mentioned that they could make them.

New Business

All agreed on purchasing another copy of the illustrated Harry Potter

- Stone Yard Devotional by Charlotte Wood

- Remembering America: A Voice from the Sixties by Richard N. Goodwin

There is no new budget yet out for the year.

We need to come up with a September activity for the K-4th grade school kids.

The library is open to all readers from anywhere, not just nearby towns. Elaine offered to post this to Front Porch Forum.

The building was pressure washed before Memorial Day.

The curtains should be washed. Eileen asked for help taking them down.

Beth will ask for help from the town handyman to repair the defect in the surface over the chimney.

Our next meeting is August 7th at 4 pm

Adjourned by Eileen at 5:01
